Virginia Satir [Family Therapy, Setting Outcomes, Language Patterns,]

Sigmund Freud [Psychoanalysis]

Anton Mesmer [Conditioned Responses]

Gregory Bateson [Communication, Reframing]

Their Main Focus was:

What Can Be Done To Change Peoples Lives For The Better?

NLP skills can help to clear negative emotions and limiting decisions such as, feeling powerless or not good enough, lack of motivation, loss, trauma, hurt, fear, anger, anxiety, confusion, sadness, frustration, jealousy, betrayal, resentment, grief, rejection, lack of confidence, etc.
